

THE LATE MR. LANE.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—In your issue of Dec. 26, you say of Mr. W. C. Lane, who has just gone to the happy hunting grounds, that he came here in the early '40's. Mr. Lane came here in the early '50's not the '40's. The old Maine hotel, as it was called in the olden time, was not a hotel but a saloon, that was built and run as a saloon, by a Mr. Brown and a man called Long Thomson, from the year '47 up to the early fifties. It was never a hospital until in the late sixties or early seventies.

OLD TIMER.

A Student's Letter.

He was a German student, and this was the latter he addressed to his uncle:

"Dear Uncle: A very strange thing happened yesterday. I went to see a friend of mine at the bank, who knows your handwriting very well, and he thought you were ill, as I had not lately presented any checks signed by you. He begs to be remembered to you, as also do I; and you might let my friend see your signature again. If you are very busy, you might send a blank check, and I will fill it in. Yours affectionately, Karl." — London Household Words.

Yales' La Freckla

is Mme. Yale's infallible cure of Freckles, Tan and Sunburn. It is the only remedy ever compounded that will remove freckles completely and surely.

The fairer and more delicate the skin, the more likely it is to freckle and the worse it will look after it is freckled.

Thousands of women, otherwise beautiful, are disfigured by these unsightly, brown blotches. Nothing will hide them. They are a source of misery, but they can be cured. La Freckla is the death-warrant to freckles. The preparation of La Freckla is one of Mme. Yale's greatest achievements. There are many imitations, some of them very dangerous and hurtful to the skin; none of them really effective. For safety and certainty, insist always on getting the genuine and original La Freckla.
